student to be considered for a broader range of financial aid options than filling out the Texas Application for State Financial Aid (TASFA). The FAFSA allows a student to be considered for federal, state, and institutional financial aid opportunities. If a student completes the FAFSA, the student should not complete a TASFA.

Students who do not complete a FAFSA may complete a TASFA to be considered for state financial aid programs. Remember that failing to fill out a FAFSA means that the student will not be considered for any federal financial aid programs.

State financial aid programs require that a student is a Texas resident.

Contact the college you plan to attend to confirm final deadlines since they can vary. Students should apply as soon as possible to maximize their state financial aid options since funding is limited.
