This statewide initiative is designed to eliminate a key barrier to higher education and make college more accessible for all Texas students. As a K–12 educator, counselor, or college advisor, this is a perfect opportunity to:

- Encourage students to finalize their college lists
- Provide support with application materials
- Host application workshops or office hours
- Share this opportunity with families and school communities

With college costs continuing to rise, fee waivers can make a meaningful difference—especially for students applying to multiple institutions.

Mark your calendars and start preparing now so your students are ready to take full advantage of Texas Free Application Week.
